We will respond as soon as possible, but no later than within 7 days. If a longer period is needed, we will inform you and set a new deadline — not exceeding 2 months. If we cannot provide accessibility, we will offer an alternative access method.

Handling requests and complaints related to accessibility

If your request for digital accessibility is refused and you disagree with the decision, you may file a complaint. This also applies if you disagree with the alternative access method offered.

Complaints should be submitted by post or email to:

- Robert Jakubik – Deputy Director of the Institute
